Are you interested in male or female?

- Male
 Female
 Undecided/No Preference

Please explain the reason for your preference:

Do you have children? Yes No

If so, what are their ages?

Do all family members want a new puppy? Yes No

Does Anyone in your family suffer from pet allergies? Yes No

Do you own or rent? Own Rent

If you rent, do you have written permission from the landlord to have a dog? Yes No

If no, please explain:

Is your yard fenced? Yes No

If no, do you have a plan for safely exercising your puppy and having a place to relieve itself? Yes No

Please explain:

For what purpose(s) are you purchasing a Golden Retriever puppy?

Why a Golden Retriever?

Will this be your first dog? Yes No

Are you committed to caring for your puppy for its lifetime? Yes No

Are you aware of the time and energy needed to care for a young puppy and willing and able to accept that responsibility? Yes No

Do you have any other pets? Yes No

If yes, tell us about them:

What location of your home will be the primary living area for your new Golden during the day?

Please describe where the puppy will be during the night?

How many hours per day do you anticipate this puppy being alone? _____

How will your potential new Golden be confined when you are away from home?

If you will be gone for more than a few hours at a time, will the puppy be able to be let out for a potty break and exercise? (The rule of thumb for how long a puppy can hold it in the crate - during the day is their age in months. So, 2 months = about 2 hours; 3 months = about 3 hours; etc.) _____

Caring for a new puppy adds up. Do you have the financial means to budget the cost of a new puppy? (Purchase price, check-ups and vaccinations, heartworm medication, medical bills, crate, premium food, toys, grooming products, etc.)? Yes No

In spite of the best care and the best breeding practices, health problems may occur that require surgery or extensive treatment. These problems can include but are not limited to: hip dysplasia, allergies, cancer, accidental poisoning, and auto accidents. Can you afford good veterinary care and are you willing to invest in your puppy in the event of health problems? Yes No

How do you intend to handle basic obedience training for your new puppy?

Are you going to have your puppy trained for hunting, hunt tests, and/or field trials? If so, who will train this puppy?

At WW Goldens, we require the puppy/dog be returned to us - at any age - if you are unable to care for the dog. Our goal here is to keep any WW Goldens' dog from being in a shelter, rescue or anywhere he/she's not wanted. We will work with you if you have identified the perfect home. We want to be involved in the re-homing process so the new owner knows we will always take them back and rehome if needed - at any age. We lovingly accept returns on surrender basis at no charge, owner will be responsible for any cost of transporting back to our kennel. Also, we may have people who are looking for a dog and will cover the transportation cost for you. Do you agree to notify WW Goldens first if you can no longer keep your dog? Yes No

We screen all our applicants in an attempt to place our puppies in the best environment and family situation possible. Please tell us anything else about yourself that would help us make a decision that is best for our puppies.
